Regarding: Wetlands and Flood-prone TMK Acquisitions

Dear SM CPAC,

The undersigned wetlands experts, watershed scientists, and community members have agreed that the best language for the SMCP should be written in the following manner. (Please use the provided language exactly as written). This language is also endorsed by the Sierra Club of Maui, South Maui Save the Wetlands Hui, Rooted Kekahi Me Ka Aina, and Maui Tomorrow.

Regards,

David Dorn, Robin. Knox, Brandi Corpuz, Lucienne De Naie, Charlene Schulenburg.

To preserve, restore and provide for the migration of the remaining wetlands in South Maui, and to protect essential floodways and flood-prone lands, the county shall:

- Purchase wetland parcels TMKs 3-9-001-162, 3-9-062-019, 3-9-001-164, 3-9-001-007, 3-9-059-001, 3-9-058-061, and 3-9-046-011 under the threat of condemnation if necessary, and designate as open space-protected lands in perpetuity.
- Acquire Conservation Easements of, the undeveloped portion of parcel TMK 3-9-001-160, and the northern half of 3-9-001-149 under the threat of condemnation if necessary, and designate as open space-protected lands in perpetuity.
- To the maximum extent possible, obtain conservation easements or purchase through negotiation wetlands (including but not limited to gulches, continuous, intermittent, and ephemeral streams, streambeds, and floodplains), under the threat of condemnation if necessary, and designate them as open space-protected lands in perpetuity.
